CARRYING MONEY IS NOT AN INFRINGEMENT NOR A CRIME; NOT DECLARING IT IS.

Do you carry more than 10,000 (ten thousand) United States dollars or its equivalent in other currencies in cash, domestic or foreign checks, money orders or any other document receivable or a combination of these?

YES ☐ NO ☐ How much is it exceeded?

If the answer is YES, please fill out the "Declaración de Internación o Extracción de Cantidades en Efectivo y/o Documentos por Cobrar" (Declaration on bringing and taking money in cash and/or securities), which you can request from customs personnel or through the link <https://anam.gob.mx/declaracion-de-dinero/>.

INSTRUCTIONS

- In accordance with the provisions of Mexican Customs Law, you must fill out and file the applicable declarations upon your departure if you are bringing money in cash, domestic or foreign checks, money orders or any other securities exceeding 10,000 (ten thousand) United States dollars.
- You must fill out this declaration completely in blue or black ink.
- In case the declaration is made by family, please write down the full name and information of the family representative; the amounts that each of their members carries with them must be accumulated into a common total.
- Once the declaration is filled out and signed, you must deliver the original, together with the "Declaración de Internación o Extracción de Cantidades en Efectivo y/o Documentos por Cobrar" (Declaration on bringing and taking money in cash and/or securities), to the customs personnel.

WARNING!

Failure to declare carrying amounts in cash, national or foreign checks, money orders, or any other collectible document, or a combination thereof, exceeding 10,000 (ten thousand) United States dollars or its equivalent in other currencies, constitutes a violation of tax provisions that is punishable by a fine and, in some cases, may lead to the commission of a crime that is punishable by imprisonment.
